S T. James's, June 11. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Synod of Argyle; preſented to her Majeſty by Mr. David Campbell, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

OUR Duty and Gratitude to the moſt High, and unfeign'd Loyalty to your Majeſty, obliges us at this time to expreſs our Senſe of and Thankfulneſs for the late moſt ſignal Inſtance of divine Providence, in preſerving your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, our Lives, Laws, Liberties, and free Exerciſe of Religion, as eſtabliſh'd by Law, from the wicked Attempts of cruel French and Popiſh Adverſaries, with their no leſs wicked Accomplices, who could have no other Deſign but the Subverſion of our Religion and your Majeſty's Government, by ſetting up a Popiſh Pretender on your Throne, and finding this their deteſtable Project diſappointed by the Union, they ſeem'd to judge it neceſſary, like Men paſt hope, to make uſe of deſperate Remedies.

As all your Majeſty's good and loyal Subjects are in Duty bound, ſo we, in a ſpecial manner, who have received diſtinguiſhing Marks of your Royal Bounty, think our ſelves ſincerely oblig'd to congratulate the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and auſpicious Government, and chearfully to return our Thanks to the Eternal God for that Inſtance of his divine Mercy.

We heartily deteſt whatever tends to diſturb your Majeſty's happy Reign over us, upon which the continuance of our Peace and Liberty, and the reſtraining the Ambition of the declared Enemy of the Proteſtant Religion and Peace of Europe, doth, under God, depend.

We are ſo ſenſible of the great and manifold Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Protection, that we will always reckon it our Duty, to be earneſt at the Throne of Grace for the Bleſſings of Heaven on your ſacred Perſon and Succeſs to your Arms, and thoſe of your Allies; and that God may ſeaſonably detect and overturn the bad Deſigns of your Enemies both at home and abroad.

As it hath been hitherto our conſtant Endeavour, ſo we heartily reſolve to continue ſuch Impreſſions of your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration to the People under our Care, as becomes Loyal Subjects and faithful Miniſters of the Goſpel.

We earneſtly beſeech the Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty in the peaceable Poſſeſſion of your Throne, a happy Inſtrument to reſtore Peace to Europe, to curb the Ambition of the Common Enemy, to be the Protectreſs of the Proteſtant Religion at home and abroad, and to ſecure the Succeſſion of the Crown of this Kingdom in the Proteſtant Line. Sign'd at Inverary the Eighteenth Day of May, 1708.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Heretors, and others within the Sheriffdom of Banff.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Venice, May 26. N. S. On Sunday the 20th of this Inſtant the Doge perform'd the Ceremony of Marrying the Sea, in the uſual manner. Some Imperial Troops have been detach'd out of the Dutchy of Parma, to guard her Catholick Majeſty into Milan. We hear, That on the 21ſt Her Majeſty arriv'd at Trent, where ſhe was receiv'd by diſcharge of Cannon, conducted to an Apartment in the Caſtle, and entertain'd in a ſplendid manner by the Prince and Biſhop of that Place. On the 22d Her Majeſty proceeded to Roveredo, accompanied by the Prince of Lorrain, Biſhop of Oſnaburg, and a numerous Train of Perſons of Quality of both Sexes. Illuminations were made before the Caſtle, and in all the more frequented Places of the City, as alſo in the Neighbouring Caſtles of Biſeno, Caſtello, Caſtel-nuevo, and Caſtel-Corno. Her Majeſty reſted the 23d, and left that Place the next Day, under the diſcharge of the Artillery. In the Evening ſhe was receiv'd on the Frontiers of this State with great Ceremony and Magnificence by General Molino, with the Character of Envoy from the Republick. The General has Orders to conduct her to Breſcia, where ſhe is expected this Day, and will be receiv'd with all the Pomp that is ſuitable to the Occaſion. They write from Milan, That ſhe is to arrive there on the 31ſt of this Month, and that the Cardinals Morrigio and Archinto were already there, in order to compliment her Majeſty; but it is doubted, whether they will perform thoſe Honours to her in the Name of the Pope, or in their own Perſons: For, it is ſaid, that in a Conſiſtory at Rome they had determin'd on the latter, and add the Pope chang'd his deſign of ſending a Legate Latere to her Majeſty, upon receiving Intelligence from his Nuncio at Madrid, that it was reſolv'd there, the Miniſters of ſuch Princes as ſhould do her Majeſty any Honours, ſhould immediately withdraw from that Court. The ſame Letters ſay, That the Princes of Cellamara and Caſtiglione, who were remov'd from Naples to Milan, are to remain where they are, but that the Duke of Eſcalona was committed to the Caſtle of Pizzighitone. Part of the other Priſoners were conducted to Trezzo, and the reſt permitted to go into Pavia, and to be at large upon their Honour. Letters from Leghorne adviſe, That two Dutch Privateers had brought in a French Prize, which was bound from the Havana to Marſeilles laden with Cochenelle, Indigo, and other Commodities; the whole Cargo amounting to the value of 25000 Pieces of Eight. Thoſe Letters add, that two Engliſh Frigats had taken, in the Streights, a French Veſſel of 36 Guns, bound from Marſeilles to the Weſt-Indies, and had burnt and ſunk a Privateer on the Coaſt of Malaga.

Bruſſels, June 11. N. S. They write from the Frontiers, That the French have drawn ſo many Troops out of Cambray, Valencienne, Condé, and all the adjacent Places, that the Duty of thoſe Garriſons is perform'd by Invalids. Letters from Spain adviſe, That the Marquiſs de Bay repreſented to the Duke of Anjou, that the Forces of the Portugueſe were ſuperior to thoſe under his Command; and that he was utterly unable to act offenſively, except he were reinforc'd with 8000 Men. Theſe Advices add, that the Army commanded by the Duke of Orleans, did not make up 16000 Men, and was in great want of Mony and Proviſions. 'Tis ſaid, this Scarcity has made his Royal Highneſs deſpair of beſieging Tortoſa; upon which he has written to the French Court, and repreſented the abſolute Neceſſity of ſending more Forces on that ſide, with immediate Remittances of Money for their Subſiſtence.

Plimouth, June 8. Yeſterday arriv'd here her Majeſty's Ships the Anteiope and Dover with two French Merchant-men, one call'd le Parfait, of 24 Guns and 71 Men; the other call'd l'Amazone, of 18 Guns and 42 Men, the Elector of Bavaria has lately view'd the Lines, after which he return'd to Raſtadt, where Monſieur de Vivans is poſted with a Body of Horſe. 'Tis ſaid the French Army is to paſs the Rhine at Kelh; but that it is weakned by a Detachment of 12000 Men, which is to lye near Strasbourg, to be in a readineſs for acting on the Moſelle.

Hague, June 12. N. S Letters from the Lower Rhine ſay, that the Body of Palatines, conſiſting of 11000 Men, continue their March to the Moſelle. The Troops of Heſſe-Caſſel are in the Neighbourhood of Creutznach, where they expect freſh Orders. The Forces which Monſieur de St. Fremond had aſſembl'd near Hombourg have marched down to Saar-Louis, and demanded great Quantities of Proviſions and Forage from all the Dependancies near that Place. It is given out that they are compos'd of 35 Battalions and 53 Squadrons, part of which are drawn out of the adjacent Garriſons; and that they are to march to the Moſelle, where Mr. de St. Fremond is to command 'till the Arrival of the Duke of Berwick. Letters from Paris ſay, that all their Advices from Spain are full of Complaints; and that the Duke of Orleans can put no Diſpoſition he has made in Execution for want of Money.

Briſtol, June 6. This Day came in the Frankland Packet Boat, Captain Grumley Commander, from Jamaica, but laſt from Milford; and the John of Dublin, James Neuel Maſter, from Rotterdam. The Marygold of Cheſter, with the Patience and Dublin-Merchant; all three from Dublin, but laſt from Waterford, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Shorham, which ſaw them as high as the Iſland of Lundy. The Lizard, with the two Timber-Ships, is in King-road, bound for Milford.

Portſmouth, June 8. On the 6th Inſtant, Sir George Bing on Board the Royal Ann, and Sir John Jennings on Board the Triumph, ſailed from Spithead with ſeveral outward bound Merchant-men; but the Wind blowing freſh weſterly, oblig'd 'em to anchor at St. Hellens. Yeſterday Her Majeſty's Ship the Pembrook ſail'd out of the Harbour to Spithead, and this Morning ſail'd again to St. Hellens. Sir George Bing and Sir John Jennings will ſail with the firſt fair Wind to the Weſtward.

Kenſington, June 8. This Day an Oration ſpoken by J. Burchardus Menckenius, Publick Profeſſor of Hiſtory, and Fellow of the Royal Society, at an Act of the Univerſity of Leipſick, kept on St. Ann's Day in Honour of Her Majeſty and the Britiſh Nation, on the Occaſion of the Union of England and Scotland, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Dr. John Woodward of Greſham College, introduc'd by the Right Honourable Henry Boyle, Eſq; one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. He was alſo introduced to his Royal Highneſs the Prince by the Right Honourable the Lord Delaware, Groom of the Stole to his Royal Highneſs.

Whitehall, June 7. This Day, by Warrant from the Right Honourable the Lords of her Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, the Lord Drummond, Sir George Maxwell, and Robert Murray, Eſq; were committed Priſoners to the Tower of London; and the Lairds of Cardeen and Keir to Newgate.

Members choſen for the enſuing Parliament.

County of Devon, Sir William Courtenay, Robert Rolles, Eſq;
Newcaſtle upon Tyne, William Carr, Eſq; Sir Henry Lyddel.
County of Pembroke, Wyriot Owen, Eſq;
